

Join us at the
FIRST ANNUAL

WEST DUWAMISH ENVIRONMENTAL SUMMIT

A forum to gather together community members and organizations interested in the environmental and historical issues regarding the West Duwamish Greenbelt and surrounding watershed.

Saturday, April 10, 2004
10:00 am—1:00 pm

BROCKEY CENTER, Room A
SOUTH SEATTLE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Sponsored by:
The Riverview Trail Improvement Project (rTrip)

LIST OF PRESENTERS:

Matthew Horwitz, SSCC Director of Facilities Planning and Operations (will present their campus redevelopment plan) ▪ BJ Cummings, Duwamish River Clean-up Coalition ▪ James Rasmussen, The Duwamish Tribal Council ▪ Seattle Chinese Gardens ▪ Judy Bentley (oral historian from SSCC will play an oral history tape) ▪ Paul West (did a vegetation management plan for the Greenbelt) ▪ Mark Mead, Seattle Urban Forester ▪ Rory Denovan, Seattle Parks (reforesting the greenbelt near Highland Parkway) ▪ Chukundi Salisbury, Seattle Parks Trail Coordinator ▪ Linda Vane, Natural Resources Stewardship Network (NRSN) ▪ EarthCorps (our partners in our 2004 NRSN grant) ▪ John Dixon and Steve Richmond, Washington Native Plant Society ▪ Clear the Air (concerned with odor issues in the area) ▪ Community Coalition for Environmental Justice ▪ Donald Norman, Seattle Audubon Society (monitoring bird & animal populations in the Greenbelt) ▪ The Nature Consortium (reforesting the Greenbelt) ▪ Matthew Houghton, Save the Soundway Greenspace ▪ Jourdan Keith, Urban Wilderness Project ▪ Dan Cargill, Department of Ecology (will answer questions about cement kiln dust and Duwamish superfund) ▪ George Blomberg, Port of Seattle (will talk about environmental projects along the Duwamish River/West Marginal Way) ▪ Alki Bike and Board (clearing trails for mountain biker use) ▪ Jessemine Fung, People for Puget Sound (restoring, monitoring, and stewarding intertidal sites along the Duwamish)

Location map on the reverse side. For more information about rTrip, visit our website:

<http://www.rtrip.org>

Or call us at: 206-293-2084

Refreshments will be provided.

KING COUNTY
Dept of Natural Resources & Parks

This project is funded in part by the King County Department of Natural Resources and Parks, Washington Department of Natural Resources and the USDA Forest Service through the Natural Resource Stewardship Network.

LOCATION MAP

SSCC West Seattle Campus
Jerry Brockey Center (JMB)
 South Seattle Community College
 6000 16 Ave. SW, Seattle, WA 98106

